OPENING OF TERMINAL INCREASES R. R. FARE

Passengers Entering Dallas Except
From South and West, Will Pay
More Mileage.

(By Associated Press)

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 11.—Inauguration of train service into Dallas' new $5,000,000 union terminal station will mean that passengers from Texas points north, northeast and northwest of Dallas must pay 5 cents more for passenger fares than before.

It was explained by the railroad companies making this advance that it required a one mile longer haul to the new depot than to the individual stations previously used, hence the increased tariff.

Orders for this increase have been sent out from general offices here, but it does not become effective until the actual operation of trains into the new terminal.

Railroad companies operating trains from the south said the one mile shorter haul from that direction would not cause them to lower their fares by the same amount.

Wasn't in the Lines.

In her draped and darkened tent the amateur palmist was reading hands for a charity. Her present client was a fair maid, who waited impatiently to hear her fate.

"Ah," said the palmist, with slow impressiveness, "I see by your hand you are going to be married."

"How wonderful!" said the girl, with a blush.

"And," went on the wise one, a note of ascerbity in her voice, "I see that you are engaged to Mr. Binks."

"It's perfectly amazing!" gasped the girl. "How can you tell?"

"By long study of art," came the evasive reply.

"But surely the lines in my hand cannot tell you the name of—"

"Who said anything about lines?" replied the sibyl, with cutting scorn.

"You are wearing the engagement ring which I returned to Mr. Binks three weeks ago."

"So old Williams is looking for a divorce from his young wife. On what grounds?" "On the grounds of economy, I guess."—Brooklyn Eagle.

TWO CONVENTIONS AT ISLAND CITY

Galveston Entertaining State Association of Architects and State Library Association.

(By Associated Press)

Galveston, Texas, Oct. 11.—Galveston is entertaining two state conventions, beginning today, with the arrival of delegates from the Texas State Association of Architects and the Texas Library Association.

Discussion of proposed changes of laws as affecting architects and builders, addresses of interest to the profession and entertainment arranged by Galveston architects was the program for the two days' session of the first named organization.

The state librarians will hear, among other addresses, a talk by Carl H. Milam, director of the public library at Birmingham, Ala., on "The Library and Community Service." Various other subjects will be discussed. Probably the most important will be the consideration of an adequate county library law for Texas, recommendations for which will be made to the next legislature. Miss Elizabeth West, librarian of the Carnegie Library at San Antonio, is president of the association.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD.

Dust Hot Water Bottle Inside With Starch Before Putting Away.

Hot water bottle: If you are going to put a hot water bottle away for any length of time, drain it thoroughly and dust talcum powder or starch inside it. This will keep it in good condition.

It is very handy to have an apron with large pockets to wear when you are making the beds and tidying up the house. Into the pockets you can put things that are to be taken down stairs.

A good sauce to serve with croquettes is made with one cup drawn butter, to which is added, just before serving, one-quarter cup of diced cucumbers and one teaspoon of chopped parsley.

A very good brass polish is made of one cup of kerosene, one cup of ammonia, two tablespoonfuls of salt and two cups of whiting. Mix all together and allow it to stand until the whiting is dissolved.

If by accident you have made a mistake in marking them, place the article in cold water, to which a little lemon juice has been added. Let this soak fifteen minutes, then soap the stained part and rinse.

The actions of a father speak louder than the words of a son.

CONFEDERATE GREETINGS.

(Loving greetings from Mrs. M. D. Parria, poet laureate Texas division United Daughters of the Confederacy to the United Confederate Veterans of Texas in reunion assembled at Terrell, Texas, October 5th and 6th, 1916.)

Whom came we here to honor?
To whom would we gladly pay
A warm and heart-felt tribute
On this reunion day?

En chorus comes this grand response:
The cherished veterans of the change-
less gray.

Hail, veterans of a cause called "lost," attend!

And let your far-famed rebel yell
With our cordial greetings blend.

(Rebel yell by the veterans.)

Mingle ye today as only comrades may

Who know what 'tis to do and dare,
Win honor in an all unequal fray,
And in defeat your manhood still to wear.

Long years have sped since you, brave
men,
In vigor donned the Southern gray,
And with warm hearts true as your
steels,
Marched to the front in confident array.

You fought as only patriots fight,
Were vanquished but aa heroes are,
Proving your prowess e'en when might
Eclipsed all save your polar star.

No tremor seized you even then,
Proudly though sadly did you bow,
Furling with scarred hands your flag,
Unsullied then, held sacred now.

Can we, your women, e'er do less
Than these your spotless records bless?

Can we forget the trying past
O'er which you a deathless halo cast?

No, never! Husbands, brothers,
sires!

We love the glow of your camp fires
Round which, though war tales furnish theme,
'Tis yours to smoke, to joke, to dream.

And where we may join you
Singing the Bonnie Flag of Blue,
Dixie, the Girl I Left Behind Me,
Home, Sweet Home, and the Tie That Binds Me.

Our hearts are full. We can but say:
Heaven bless the men who wore the Gray.

Closing with this sweet refrain:
God Be With You Till We Meet Again.

If I knew you and you knew me—
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine
The meaning of your heart and mine,
I'm sure that we would differ less
And clasp our hands in friendliness;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree
If I knew you and you knew me.
—Nixon Waterman.

"I saw your wife and daughter the other day, but they didn't see me."
"So they said."—Boston Transcript.

TO DEMAND WITH- DRAWAL OF TROOPS

This Question Must Come First in Matters Before the Mexican-American Commission.

(By Associated Press)
San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 11.—Col. Juan Barragan, chief of staff to First Chief Carranza, said Tuesday that an agreement to withdraw American troops from Mexico must be signed and a definite date for withdrawal must be set before any other questions affecting Mexico can be successfully taken up by the Mexican-American commission at Atlantic City.

Barragan will accompany Elisae Arredondo, Mexican ambassador-designate to the United States, to Washington when the latter passes through here on the return trip to his post after conferring with Carranza.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 11.—The American members of the Mexican-American joint commission again Tuesday studied with General Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the United States army, the military questions involved in suggested plans for border control.

The Mexicans also met separately and no joint conference was held until late in the day.

REVS. TATUM AND DALLY AT ALLEN ACADEMY.

Revs. J. J. Tatum and Z. B. Dally of Weatherford, Texas, visited Allen Academy this morning and conducted the chapel service. Rev. Dally represents the Free Baptist church in its missionary work among the Sunday schools and young people's societies.

After a few words of cordial greeting addressed to the student body, in which he expressed his great interest in the Allen Academy boys and his approval of the work done by the school, Rev. Tatum introduced the visiting minister, Rev. Dally, who led the devotional exercises of the morning.

Rev. Dally, taking as a lesson the advice of that great hero-teacher, Paul, to his young friend and pupil, Timothy, made an appeal to the boys to build their lives upon the only true and enduring foundation, Jesus Christ. His words were simple, direct and convincing and they were listened to closely by the student body.

Rev. Dally is recently from Little Cedar, Iowa. We welcome him to Texas and wish for him the largest measure of success in his chosen field of work among the young people of our state.
